Commencement to Release 202 June 17

Secretarial Honor To Be Awarded 37 At Exercises

Associate of Arts degrees will be given to approximately 165 graduates when commencement exercises are held at the Santa Ana high school auditorium Thursday afternoon, June 17, it was indicated today when a tentative list of this year's graduates was revealed. In addition, 37 will receive secretarial certificates.

Registrar Mabel G. Whiting stated that the total is subject to change following completion of the examination schedule, as the list of graduates depends on the successful completion of this semester's work.

U. S. C. Speaker Obtained
Prof. W. Ballentine Henley, acting dean of the school of government at the University of Southern California, has been obtained as the principal speaker for commencement.

Baccalaureate services are to be held Sunday, June 13, at 4 p. m. in the high school auditorium. The Rev. Harry Evan Owings, pastor of the First Baptist church, will deliver the sermon.

Evening School Graduates Nine

Commencement exercises for the Santa Ana evening high school graduates were held in the Willard auditorium Wednesday at 8 p. m. following a graduation banquet at 6:30 p. m.

Graduates from the Lathrop evening high school under the direction of W. W. Wieman are Frederick Harold Dawson, Helen Johnson, Peter Leo Cavanagh, and Neal B. Smith.

Willard evening high school graduates under the direction of Mrs. Golden Weston, head of the adult education department, are Eva Parsons, Crawford Isabel Bennett Fink, Harry I. Fink, Joan Frede Schackenberg, and Martha L. Sexlinger.

Student Lives in Oklahoma, Gets Mail in Arkansas

By DELPHA WOLLERT
Is it possible, if not confusing, to live in one state and receive mail in another?

Yes, this is the unusual interstate arrangement which Louella Day, freshman pre-nursing student, will return to when she goes home this summer. She lives in Oklahoma but has an Arkansas address.

It's one of those mixed-up cases of a controversial boundary line. This time, however, a postoffice is involved.

Near Boundary
Miss May's home is in the northern corner of Oklahoma, one-half mile from the Arkansas border. The nearest town with a postoffice is Maysville, through whose center the boundary line runs. At one time the postoffice situation became very confusing. An argument arose over the line which passed just in back of the post office, barely placing it on the Arkansas side.

Such a few inches difference proved too much for the Oklahomans to stand. So in order to settle once and for all any further disturbances, the building was moved across the street.

Inter-state Service
This seemed to satisfy people of both states, even though it resulted in the arrangement of an interstate post office service for that section.

Although her's is such a strange combination of state addresses, Miss May has not found it confusing.

Trying to give an explanation of this situation to a curious friend has proven the only difficulty so far.

Housing Program Discussed Here

Possibility of a housing program at jaysee was the topic discussed Wednesday by Mrs. Edward Landers, state chairman of college extension from San Francisco, before the executive board of the Junior College Patron's association.

Plans for the arrangement for housing students from outside points who attend jaysee here were discussed. Other schools in California have launched such campaigns and have succeeded in obtaining dormitories for the convenience of foreign students, it was stated.

The meeting was attended by D. K. Hammond, who is a member of the board, Mrs. Eleanor Northcross, Calvin C. Flint, and John H. McCoy.

Further arrangements were made for the annual spring tea which will be held by the association on Wednesday, June 9, from 3 to 5 p. m., in the Womens lounge. This affair is held for the mothers of graduating seniors of the high schools, who are to be honored guests.

Rowland Named El Don Editor

Vic Rowland, sophomore journalism student and former president of the Associated Students, will succeed Bob Swanson as editor of El Don with the opening of the fall term in September, it was announced today. Swanson will join the editorial staff of the Orange Daily News immediately following his graduation from jaysee this month.

Other new appointments made this week included Eleanor Brady as society editor; Jack Gardner as sport editor; and Oscar Lieffers as feature editor. Bob Warren, who assisted with circulation this year, will become circulation manager for the coming semester.

The only post not filled is that of advertising and business manager. A student to succeed Harvey Baker in that position will not be named until September, it was stated.

May Have Summer Placement Work

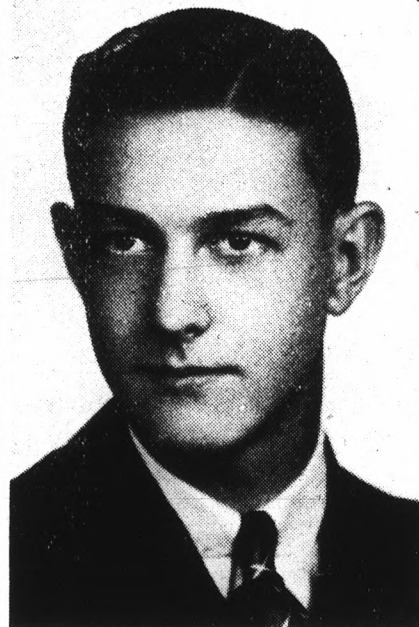

With jobs being filled daily by jaysee students, it appeared likely today that the college placement bureau may be continued this summer.

With about 50 students on file who want work, there is urgent need for the bureau throughout the entire summer, it was stated. Instructor George B. Holmes is head of the local bureau.

Hoiles Comments On Education

Editorials by Editor R. C. Hoiles of The Register, deploring public education and educators, totalled 13 today. The tabulation was started May 1 and includes the two darts aimed at the present educational system during the past week. Although this is the final edition this year, El Don will endeavor to keep track of the editor's school complaints during the summer. As previously stated, no attempt will be made to tabulate the editorials on wages and taxes.

TAY RIGGS

Issue Del Ano Next Friday

Informality will be the keynote of Del Ano, junior college year book, which will be issued on the campus next Friday, June 11, by Editor Tay Riggs and his staff of editorial assistants. The annuals may be obtained at the business office.

With the exception of the individual pictures of the sophomore graduates and the group pictures of the campus organizations the entire book is of the candid camera type. Milford Dahl, student photographer, handled all picture work.

Local Instructor Gets In Cartoon

How does it feel to be pictured in a nationally syndicated cartoon?

Instructor E. M. Nealley could answer that question today following release of a cartoon by Norman Lea of the Associated Collegiate Press in which the local teacher and his 1000 charts receive prominent mention.

Through special arrangements made with Artist Lea, El Don is able to publish the cartoon on page 3 today. It has appeared in several hundred other college newspapers during the past several weeks.

Santa Ana Jaysee Heard Half Way Around World

By OSCAR LIEFFERS
Santa Ana is heard half way around the world.

Of course, this is not caused by students protesting against examinations or yell leaders doing their best at a football game. Santa Ana is heard half way round the world by way of radio. There are more than seven amateur radio operators attending Santa Ana Junior college.

Many of the Santa Ana group belong to the American Relay League which has its offices in Hartford, Connecticut. This organization will relay messages to any part of the United States free of

BULLETIN

Lawrence Trickey, candidate for the office of vice-president, defeated Dave Phoenix, his opponent, by a comfortable margin in this morning's election. Votes were taken at 10 a. m. and counted immediately afterwards.

Dave Phoenix and Lawrence Trickey contested this morning at 10 o'clock for the position as vice-president of Associated Students. Ballots are now being counted and results will be announced at 12:30 today.

Inaugurating a new method of voting, electioneers entered 10 o'clock classes and took votes during class time.

Victorious in primary elections held Wednesday were Al Pickhardt, who was voted president of Associated Students; Virginia Sheppard, secretary; and Carl Aubrey, treasurer.

Phoenix and Trickey defeated Roberta Berry, LaVonne Frandson, and Billie Johnson Wednesday and are today competing in a final election.

Pickhardt defeated Bob Wilde and Dick Geeting in the presidential campaign. Virginia Sheppard emerged victorious over Helen Warner, her sole opponent for the secretary post. Losing in the vote for treasurer was Bud Knoff, who was defeated by Aubrey.

Traveler Speaks At Forum Class

Members of the Junior Forum class will hear an address by Dave Wynn, young traveler, this afternoon at 2:30 in CH110. The public is invited.

Wynn, at present is a studio technician in Hollywood who was connected with Irving Thalberg before his death, will describe his adventures of his experiences in Central Asia.

He crossed Central Asia by himself, went down through Afghanistan and into India—a trek which no other white man has ever performed. He was a guest for two months of the Rajah of Tanjore, and was hired by Ambassador Bullitt in Moscow for special services.

JUST A SECOND

SOME THINGS TO THINK ABOUT:

That job for the summer... All those new clothes for college next year... What you're going to get in English... How many friends you've made this year... What the impression you grades are leaving behind you...

THINGS WE'RE GOING TO MISS:

Vic Rowland's hearty greetings... Josh Brady's friendliness to everyone... Ray Foster's singing voice... Mildred Pearson's sense of humor... Bob Fowler's ability to be reprimanded in the library... Just "Pinky" himself...

THINGS WE LIKE

Neil McDaniel's excellent work as student president... this year's assemblies... the lounge radios... sitting on the campus lawn... ourselves.

THINGS WE DON'T LIKE

The next twelve days... hooting and booing at assemblies... not getting any notes... conceited people.

SEEN ABOUT THE CAMPUS

Emery Steele walking leisurely toward the library... Catherine Eklund curling Elaine McReynold's hair... June Holman's flair for foolishness... June Corry getting a drink at the fountain... Joe Crawford walking across the front lawn... Bill Twist entering an empty class room... Herb Gulick leaving Mrs. Northcross's office... Mary Holtz reading the bulletin board... Lyndon Carmen wandering about the halls... Les Minder leaving the library... All you other sophomores, too numerous to mention. Good luck.

Board Members Have Party

Members of the executive board of the Associated Students last night attended a performance of "Idiot's Delight" in Los Angeles. After a dinner at the D. K. Hammond home, the group motored to the city.

More than twenty board members and their guests, accompanied by Director Hammond and Mrs. Hammond and Dean of Men Calvin C. Flint and Mrs. Flint attended the play.

Tavern Tattlers

Speaking on "Current French Literature," Mrs. Thomas H. Glenn last night addressed members of the Tavern Tattlers. Her talk featured the program for the last meeting of the year.

WELCOMES MOTHERS' Buccaneer's Annual Party Sunday

Jean Mulbar

Y. W. C. A. Holds Annual Mothers Banquet

Approximately 28 girls and their mothers attended the annual Y. W. C. A. Mother-Daughter banquet held Thursday evening at the Doris Kathryn tearoom.

Following the dinner, which was served at tables decorated with a long line of yellow, white and blue flowers interspersed with candles, Clara Spelman and Marijane Belcher led the group in community singing. Jean Mulbar welcomed the guests and Mrs. Percy Budd then gave the response for the mothers.

A talk was given by Mrs. Jennie L. Tessmann, one of the advisers, who afterwards installed the new officers in a candle light ceremony. The girls participating in this rite were: president, Pauline Cave; vice-president, Helen Lowe; secretary, Eleanor Brady; treasurer, Joy Townsley; program chairman, Freda Wagner; and social chairman, Roberta Nichols.

Hinton Will Be Junior Lions Prexy

Other new officers are: Jack Wood, vice-president; Dick Phillips, secretary-treasurer; Hugh Plumb, tail twister; and Phil Cook, Lion Tamer.

Virginia Pritchard vacationed at Catalina island last week-end.

Twenty-five couples are expected to attend the annual Buccaneers yacht party Sunday. Leaving Long Beach at 12 noon, the group will take water taxis to Catalina island, where they will spend the rest of the day touring the island.

Picnic lunches will be furnished by the feminine members of the party.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Williams, club advisers, and Mr. and Mrs. Calvin C. Flint will accompany the group.

The Buccaneers indicated that there would be room for a few outsiders. All those interested should get in touch with a member today.

Theme Is Selected For Breakfast

Nautical is the theme for the sophomore breakfast to be served at the Green Cat cafe at 9 o'clock Thursday morning, June 17.

Breakfast is free to all sophomore Associated Students. A 35 cent price will be charged to non-associated students.

Al Titensor, class president, will officiate as toastmaster and start the first activities for graduation day.

Reading of the class will, drawn up by Polly Angne and Frances Was, promises to be the high spot of the morning.

Special dance numbers will be featured on the program which has been secured by Al Pickhardt, program chairman.

Committees in general charge consist of Bob Wilde, advertising; Kenneth Nissley, tickets and finances; and Grace Adams, decorations.

VARSITY CLUB HAS PARTY

Varsity "S" club members under the leadership of Coach Bill Cook roasted weiners over glowing coals on the smooth sand of Laguna Beach Wednesday evening. A large attendance of lettermen was present at the function.

It's FUN To GRADUATE!

Associated Women Students Elect New Officers Today

Enjoy Beach Party Beta Gamma's

With the election of Dick Phillips as president and Velma Kuechel as secretary-treasurer, the Beta Gamma combined business with pleasure as they stayed at Allan Revill's cabin at Balboa during the holidays. John Rameriz and Betty Lee, president and secretary, are the outgoing officers.

Leaving Saturday morning, the members enjoyed three days of swimming, boating, and dancing. New members who were elected into the club recently were Anne Wetherell, LaVonne Frandson, Betty West, Eloise Walker, Milford Dahl, and Llewellyn Allen.

Mrs. Johnson of the Willard cafeteria cooked the meals.

Those who attended were John Rameriz, Vic Rowland, Dick Phillips, Bob Swanson, Al Pickhardt, Allen Titensor, Lawrence Trickey, Betty West, Kenneth Nissley, Franklin Guthrie, Barbara Hallman, Helena Bailey, Neil McDaniel, Bill Greshner, Betty Lee, Mary Paxton, and Mr. and Mrs. Calvin C. Flint, who acted as chaperones. Mr. and Mrs. John Tessmann were also present.

Anne Wetherell, Aloen Mills and Evelyn Richards are competing for the office of A. W. S. president in an election being held today. The candidates were nominated in meeting last Wednesday noon.

Running for the position of vice president are Helen Warner, Ma Henderson, and Joy Townsley. Dorothy Jenkins, LaVonne Frandson, and Helen Meyer were nominated for the office of secretary.

The new officers will take charge when school opens in September replacing Llewellyn Allen, who has been president this semester, Anne Wetherell, secretary, and Virginia Shepard, vice-president.

Richards Elected Head Of Moavs

Evelyn Richards was elected president of the Moavs service club at a noon meeting here Tuesday. Jean McKamy will hold the position of vice-president, while Henretta Campbell as secretary, Donna Baker as treasurer and Erma Swartz as reporter.

Plans were made for the last meeting of the year to be held at the home of Jean McKamy and will be a steak bake. After supper, the club members will attend a show.

Barbara Knuth Receives El Don Award of $5

(Editor's note: To Freshman Barbara Knuth goes the $5 prize offered by El Don for the best answer to the article by J. P. McEvoy which appeared in The Saturday Evening Post for May 1. No sophomore qualified for the award)

Dear Mr. McEvoy:

The mention of Santa Ana Junior college in your recent article, "Move Over, Please," has made us journalism students eager to justify our existence and also eager to present some solution to the present problem of the college graduate.

In the first place, very few of us are really seriously interested in making journalism our chosen profession. We are taking it because we figure that the knowledge we gain will be useful in almost any work. Perhaps that will ease your mind about our glutting the newspaper field.

However, even that statement does not change the problem that faces students when they have to start out on their own. One of the causes of the difficulties is, I believe, the inability of most high school students to determine any definite line of work to follow. These indecisive people (who are in the majority) then take what is known as a general course—a course which gives a general cultural background but which does not prepare them for any position to earn their daily bread. That's why there is no place for them. They are not prepared to take one.

With the many new jobs that have been created during the past generation, it seems rather amazing that so many college graduates are unemployed. The answer must be that the educational centers are not keeping up with the outside world—with industrial improvements, with new economic conditions, with scientific progress.

A retort to that might be that the depression proved that there weren't enough jobs to go around, but I maintain that it only takes a little initiative and ambition to find a job or make one. Naturally, it takes a person with a little more than average intelligence, personality, and opportunity to make the top, but many can find satisfactory jobs merely by displaying a little more "punch."

One thing, though, must be faced. A college graduate, merely because he has graduated, need not think that he belongs only at the top. In this day and age a great many young men and women are going to college, and the percentage is too great to make all of them leaders. Many—indeed, most of them—must be content with being average men and women, living on an average salary in average surroundings with an average amount of security and comfort. It is nothing to be ashamed of. There is a certain distinction to being one of the great Middle Class.

But how does one get that average job? Well, all I can say is that a person can not sit passively by and let the world come to him. If he finds his education is not adequate, he must get more. How about digging ditches during the day in order to go to school at night? Someones has to dig ditches, and he may learn something else at the same time. The best thing to do is to get up to date. This is the age of airplanes, color photography, television, social security, and new deals. Do something to fit in with this life. If the college graduate majored in Greek philosophy or something like that he must find some way to apply it to life now if he is to make use of his knowledge.

After 16 years of school the idea of more is discouraging to a graduate, but if he gets results it is worth the effort. Besides, haven't you heard? The depression is over. There's no need to worry. But does

Freshman Days Begin Sept. 7

Assemblies for Freshmen Days, to be held September 7, 8, and 9 this year, will probably be given in the First Congregational church at Seventh and Main streets, L. L. Beeman, who is in charge of the general arrangements, stated today.

The luncheon for the incoming freshmen is expected to take place at the First Methodist church.

The changes from having the assemblies in the First Baptist church and the luncheon in the Y. M. C. A. were made to better accommodate the crowd of from 300 to 350 students who are expected to attend the meetings, he said.

Further definite arrangements have not been completed at the present time, Mr. Beeman added, since the Associated Student executive board and service club officers for next semester must be elected first. These committees help in carrying out the work for the occasion.

State Selection Of Honor Award

Candidates for election to permanent membership to Alpha Gamma Sigma will meet Thursday evening, June 10, at the home of Harvey Baker to vote for the graduate who will receive the $50 award for having done the most during his junior college career for the cause of scholarship.

Those who will be present are Robert Forcey, Eunice Filer, John Ramirez, Helen Griggs, Richard Connell, and Muryl Hallman. Sherwood Brady, Franklin Davis, Gordon Lockett, Marian Pletke, Henrietta Rurup, Frances Was, Elbert Stewart, Gordon Bishop, Neil McDaniel, Barbara Berger, Hans Bergsetter, Elizabeth Hill, Bain Alexander, and Wayne Gray will also attend.

Credit Union Now Open For Loans

With vacation approaching, the Orange County Teachers Credit union is prepared to make loans for the summer which will probably bring the total amount out to $85,000, Harry P. Jackson, secretary-treasurer, announced today.

George B. Holmes will be in charge of the office during the summer.

Almost 700 Orange county teachers belong to the credit union which was formed three years ago to provide means for teachers to deposit money or to borrow it.

Members are instructors, office workers of the schools and school organizations. Santa Ana Junior college is one of the members, and has $15000 invested, Jackson stated.

During most months about $12,000 is loaned out, but during the summer the amount increases, since teachers desire money for summer courses and other expenses, Mr. Jackson said.

The majority of loans are for automobile and personal loans, he added.

There are 11 directors, a supervisory committee of three members who audit the books every three months, and a credit committee of three members which approves the application. The credit union is now a California corporation.

In a special letter to El Don today from the offices of President Roosevelt, the following reply was sent regarding the continuation of the National Youth Administration next semester.

"At this time we cannot advise you definitely concerning the continuance of our program as that is contingent upon whether or not the Congress appropriates funds for that purpose."

The information, which was divulged by Mrs. Atha C. Jordan, administrative assistant, advised El Don to "keep in contact with Mrs. Anna Treadwell, California Youth Administration director, 49 Fourth street, San Francisco."

McCOY IS SPEAKER

Assistant Director John H. McCoy addressed graduates of Ocean View school, Huntington Beach, last night when commencement exercises were held at the beach city.

Next week Mr. McCoy will be the principal speaker at the annual junior-senior banquet at Orange high school.

RETIRING EDITOR

Bob Swanson, El Don editor during the past year, completed his campus publication activities with today's edition. Under his direction the local weekly won All-American honors for the second consecutive year. Swanson entered junior college two years ago following graduation from high school in Nebraska.

Many J. C. Alumni Receive Degrees

Many local jaycee alumni will receive degrees from various colleges as graduation exercises are being held this month.

From Occidental college, John Henderson, son of F. A. Henderson, school superintendent, will receive his degree in chemistry. He plans to continue his studies in the medical profession next year. From the same college, Eleanor Walter, of Newport Beach, daughter of Lawrence H. Walter, will receive her degree at the graduation. Miss Walter was very active in the Press club and was vice-president of the Laurean club.

Jean Paxton will receive her bachelor's degree from Davis. Loren Page of Tustin will receive the same degree.

80 Astronomy Students On Trip

Approximately 80 astronomy students, and others interested in the subject left this morning on their annual trip to the Mt. Wilson observatory.

Under the supervision of Mrs. Jennie L. Tessmann, local instructor, the party is expected to remain at the observatory until late this evening. As soon as their destination is reached, a tour will be made of the grounds, which will include a visit to the 60 and 100-inch telescopes, the museum, and the tower sun telescope, Mrs. Tessmann stated.

Joseph Hickox, noted sun researcher, will lecture to the group in the evening on the celestial objects. The talk will be followed by observations through the large 60-inch telescope.

Lending Library Proceeds Total $5

Now in its third month, the Penny Fair Lending library sponsored by Los Gauchos has brought in a total return of $5.00, Miss Lillian Dickson, librarian, stated today.

"I think that it has done very well," she said, "considering the small charge which is only five cents a week per book."

The purpose of the library is to give the students a chance to read the most popular current books at the lowest possible price, Miss Dickson explained.

NEW PRESIDENT

Al Pickhardt, Don debator and commissioner of forensics during the past semester, will head the local student administration next year. He was elected president of the Associated Students at the election this week. Pickhardt is a member of the Buccaneers service club.

Virginia Wilson spent the weekend in the mountains at her parents' cabin near Crestline.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Crozier Phillips, Jane King, and Lawrence Trickey attended a play at the Pasadena Community playhouse, Thursday evening.

Carolyn Davis will entertain a group of friends for luncheon Saturday afternoon.

MORE - or - LESS

By the Staff

Minor sport teams from jaysee made a far more enviable record in league competition this year than did their big brothers in the four major sports. . . The swimming team won five against one loss. . . The rugby squad won three, tied two and lost none. . . And the tennis aggregation won three out of four tilts.

In the four major sports, the undefeated football eleven won six straight to bring up the average. . . But the basketball quintet lost eight out of twelve. . . The baseball players won only one out of five. . . And the track team won three out of five league meets. . . Altogether, the minor sports won 11 to only two losses. . . But the major teams lost 18 to 13 wins.

Confession is good for the soul. . . We sports writers (?) have been asked to tabulate the articles we have written during the past year, so here goes. . . On my beat I covered the antics of Coach Ernest Butterworth and his trained rugby players. . . Now and then a track story was hammered out on the "Elsie" . . . baseball, too. . . and once or twice Gardner dusted off his pen and drew a cartoon. . . Oh yes, though I'm leaving myself wide open for some ripe tomatoes, part of this column was handed in each week by yours truly. . . . JACK GARDNER.

Some one said the head of this column could not have been more appropriately named. . . Perhaps this is true. . . Especially the Less part. . . But we of the staff have had a lot of fun writing it even if no one has bothered to read the results. . . I have appreciated all the help by my "stooges," and thanks. . . Ray Foster, ed.

Frances Was and Dorothy Griset won the Southern California women's doubles title in badminton at a Play Day held at Fullerton Jaysee recently. This is the second consecutive year that Santa Ana has won the crown.

Mercurio, Cokeley Star In Track

Blas Mercurio, 6 ft. 2 in. high jumper, was named next year's track captain, and Ray Cokeley, "iron man" of the year, was voted the most valuable member of the past season, in a team-wide election held late this week.

Despite decided weaknesses in the sprints and middle distances, the Dons wound up their 1937 conference schedule in third place behind Fullerton and Riverside. They earned the same spot in the East-

Football, Rugby Teams Best In Southern California

By JACK GARDNER

Coach Ernest Butterworth in his initial year as Don rugby mentor, was responsible for a championship undefeated team that saw three victories and two ties chalked up on the score board.

Led by Captain Fred "Pinky" Pinkston, Santa Ana upset the U. S. C. Trobables, the U. C. L. A. second-stringers and the Pasadena A. C. The U. S. C. Varsity club and Pasadena Junior college had better luck and were able to hold the local 15 to draws.

In All Star Game

Joe Herbert, Howard Rash, "Rusty" Roquet, Ed Stanley and Danny Boyd were honored with positions on a Southern California all-star team after the regular season that played a championship aggregation from Canada. Despite the fact that the Canadians crushed the "down south" boys, 13-8, "Little Joe" Herbert tied five of his club's eight points.

Of the men that turned out for the sport, 16 received silver rugby balls awarded by the Associated Students. Coach Butterworth was also honored with a similar trophy. Those who received the rugby balls

By FRANKLIN GUTHRIE

Ten football teams have come and gone during the decade which Coach Bill Cook has been at the helm of the Don athletic department. Three of these teams went on to capture the Southern California J. C. championship. But—this year's was the best.

The 1936 two-ply "power syndicate" was paced by the twin captains, hard-plunging, John Lehnhardt, and steady, Allen Titen, who went the entire season sans injuries to break up a jinx which had hounded former Don leaders.

Twin Teams Lead

The two-team idea which the genial Don mentor discovered among his forty odd shock troops and their smashing 10 wins against a lone defeat was the margin for selecting the 1936 eleven with its five all-conference members over the 1933 titlists. This year's team succeeded behind two teams which clicked on even terms.

All-conference Lehnhardt was the cog behind the first eleven and often stood the gaff for a full 60 minutes of play as he performed at every position in the backfield. Bill Greschner who set a blazing trail for four or five contests.

Swimmers Have Best Year

Jaysee's most successful swimming season!

Suffering but one defeat in conference competition, the Don swimmers finished in second place to Fullerton J. C. in the Southern California Junior college swimming conference. Santa Ana won victories in turn over Glendale, 59-13, Los Angeles, 38-37, Pasadena, 38-35, Chaffey, 65-9, and Compton, 59-14.

In two non-league meets, Coach Jess Haxton's swimmers were defeated by Occidental college 45-21, but won a 75-28 victory over Tustin High school.

The Southern California finals at Chaffey saw a decimated Don drop to fourth place below Fullerton and two teams that Santa Ana had defeated in dual competition.

Dave Phoenix was next. except with Fullerton. Captain point man for the season, scoring two victories in every dual meet.

Drennen Ahern was the high ern Conference Jaysee meet at San Bernardino.

Listen, Skeptics!

The skeptics who believe a college education is not worthwhile should listen to Director D. K. Hammond's parting word to the class of '37:

"We trust that you have an appreciation and understanding of the ideals of human betterment and good government so that you will participate in all activities which make for better and more abundant living.

"Our political and economic sky is still cloudy. It is only when our citizens begin to appraise the situation with intelligence rather than emotion that real progress can be made.

"May your intelligence and understanding be adequate for the problems ahead!"

Such a statement, coming from a man who is a REAL authority in his field, is one which uninformed critics of education could profitably study.

Journal Favors New Jaysee

Last Saturday evening the Santa Ana Journal published the following as the closing paragraph of an editorial:

"From a business standpoint, as well as a matter of civic progress, Santa Ana should roll up its sleeves and go after a modern, complete junior college plant."

There is no question concerning The Journal's attitude here. It is unquestionably for junior college education and a new plant—and it says so in a CLEAR, CONCISE, and CONVINCING manner.

"Admit the Worst"

The following portion of an editorial which appeared in the Wednesday issue of the L. A. Evening News, faces the problems of youth so realistically and colorfully that it deserves reprinting here:

"In a very short time the commencement orator is to be turned loose on this year's crop of high school graduates; and while this in some ways is tough on the graduates, it is also getting to be pretty tough on the orator, too. The good old days of commencement addresses are gone with the snows of yesterday.

"Perhaps his best bet would be to admit the worst, and then to offer that worst to the young graduates as a challenge. He might say something like this:

"It's a queer sort of world you are going into, and I can't honestly tell you that you are going to find it an easy one to handle. It is the kind of world that invents machines to relieve man of drudgery, and then lets those machines deprive him of a chance to make a living; the kind of world that destroys surplus crops while people are going hungry; that lets factories and workmen lie idle while men are suffering for want of the things those factories and workmen could produce; that seeks to cure the ills foisted on it by war by preparing for a bigger and more disastrous war in the near future.

"Sometime during the next few decades, the world is going to remake itself. It is going to find some way of avoiding starvation and want in the midst of plenty. It is going to find some way of dodging the mass suicide of war. Just how it is going to do these things I have no idea; you are the people who are going to decide that. The job will call for the best brains, courage and grit you can muster. You look as if you have what it takes; good luck to you."

Junior College Celebrates Twenty-First Annual Parade Of Graduates

By ELEANOR BRADY

Down the long years march the graduates from Santa Ana jaysee. What a contrast between 1937's and 1925's, when the ninth annual commencement exercises were held.

Then there were only 31 graduates. Think of it, only 31! And this year there are 202. According to reports made at the time, "the class of 1925 is one of the largest to ever graduate from the local institution."

Two years following, 1927, graduating with honors became a new idea. All permanent members of the honor society and those students with an average of 1.8 grade points received honorable mention at the commencement ceremonies. All Junior college graduations were held in the High school auditorium in those years.

In 1928 there was an increase to 66 graduates. It was at this occasion that the first Robert L. Brown prizes were awarded. They consisted of $35.00 in gold to be presented to the man and woman who were judged the best all-around students by the faculty. The points by which they were selected were: scholastic achievement, leadership in student affairs, catholicity of interests, unselfish service to the college community, character and health.

Then, skipping a year, in 1930 the number of graduates rose to 113. The plan of conducting the ceremonies on the front lawn was initiated and continued for several succeeding years. The First National bank prize was introduced in that year which was $50.00 in gold to be presented to the best commercial student.

The years 1934, 1935, and 1936 boasted 180, 168, and 152 graduates respectively.

See how our college has grown and will continue to grow as we watch the parade of the passing graduates.

Oddities Here And There

Only 14 more days before graduation. Does it seem believable that two years have already disappeared?

To most junior college graduates, caps and gowns and marching, mean more than just a ceremony. To many it is the end of youth and the beginning of real responsibility. For others, perhaps the more fortunate, it means the beginning of life's ambition—COLLEGE. What happens now depends on each individual. WE can make ourselves what we want to be—so they say.

Anyway the joy of graduation is somewhat saddened by the thought that what was ahead of us for years and years is now already in the dim past.

The best "feature it" of the year came to light just this week when Virginia Prichard mentioned that her birthday occurs on the approaching 18th and then Helen Meyer revealed that her natal day was on the 19th. Following close in line, Mary Henderson piped up that hers was on the 20th, and all the girls recalled that June Clark (S. A. H. S. Graduate), a close celebrates the 21st. Somebody will just have to throw a party in honor of this unusual occurrence. Won't it be fun, girls?

Remember last year's final edition, Stanley F. Wilson concluded with a bunch of orchids to his favorites? Well, all I can say is, "O, Gingerbread" with a big exclamation mark!—And that's because I'm crazy about it. Aren't you?

Joke A Week

Lots of local graduates didn't know that there would be no before-practice for the coming ceremony. Nor that invitations for the services could be obtained free.

Sam "Speedy Talker" Hayes, the original Richfield Reporter, steps behind a microphone again Sundays through Fridays with his "News-time" broadcasts starting this Sunday, KNX at 10 o'clock. A Coast banking concern will be Hayes' new check writer. . .

Add—Summer Stuff: Walter O'Keefe, the "Broadway Hillbilly," fills Fred Allen's shoes on the "twin smiles" program when Allen quits for the summer. . . Gene Austin, who plays none but the black keys of the piano, will carry on for Joe Penner, with the aid of Jimmie Grier's orchestra. . . Stu Erwin, one of the screen's "dead pan" actors, will likely keep Jack Oakie's "College" open for a summer session. Benny Goodman and his swingsters are definitely to remain on the Oakie show during the warm spell. . . "Universal Rhythm" takes over the Sunday Evening hour on June 20, starring Richard Bonelli, Met. baritone, and Alec Templeton, blind pianist. . . Jane Froman, Don Ross, and funnyman Joe Lewis keep J. Benny's show moving. . .

The Braddock-Louis fistic battle June 22 is costing the National network $15,000 and the "When Better Cars are Built" people another $35,000, making a nice round total of $50,000 (or can you add that yourself?). . .

Be sure to have (h)ead: Bette Davis, Ed G. Robinson in "Kid" Galahad," KNX tonight at 5. Jimmy Fidler while Hollywood burns, KFI tonight at 6:30. Horace Heidt's orchestra, KVOE tonight at 8. Claudette Colbert, KNX tomorrow at 6. Constance Bennett, KHJ tomorrow at 6:15. "Twin Stars" impersonating famous married couples of fiction, KNX Sunday at 4. Kay Kyser play and sing "Lime House Blues" and "Don't Bring Lulu," KVOE Sunday at 6. Comedian Ed Stanley, Pinky Tomlin, Deanna Durbin and Bobbie Breen, KNX Sunday at 8. . .

Vocal boy makes good. Latest example is Jerry Cooper (Jack Randolph), new emcee of "Hollywood Hotel." . . Gotta go now . . . We'll be seein' ya in the fall—I betcha. KV. E. R. signing off. G'bye (with a tear and a smile).

CONGRATULATIONS

To the 1937 Graduates

May the days . . . months . . . and years in which you continue your education be filled with joy, happiness and success.
